SYMPOSIUM SCHEDULE

8:00-8:30	Hallway outside Moore 153	Registration / HALT membership renewal / Breakfast  Please - no food or drinks permitted in the computer lab rooms! **
8:30-9:00	Moore 155B Faculty Dev. Lab	Welcome &amp; introduction &amp; announcements Satoru Shinagawa, Jim Yoshioka, Lisa Kobuke, Language Representatives
9:00-10:00 Choose one of three sessions	Moore 153B Mac Lab	Session A: Elluminate and Apps for iPad, iPhone, iPod Touch This session will have two purposes. The first purpose is to introduce a free version of "Elluminate", an online conference software for up to 3 people. It has a whiteboard on which you can draw, type, even show PowerPoint slides. The use of this software is unlimited, such as virtual office hours, online presentations, even trouble shoot your friend's computer by looking at your friend's desktop remotely. The other purpose is to use language related Apps for iPad, iPhone and iPod Touch. Sometimes some Apps go on sale, or are even free. How can you find such information? Also some useful applications for language learning/teaching will be shared. Satoru Shinagawa (KCC)
	Moore 155B Faculty Dev. Lab	Session B: Are You Fluent in National Standards? Making the Standards a Fundamental Part of Foreign Language Lessons and Curriculum Applying the National Standards for Foreign Language in the classroom can be a bit like learning a foreign language – the challenge is to move from knowing about the standards and perhaps reciting them aloud to becoming proficient in integrating them into instruction and making them a vital part of each class. In this session, we will examine the application of the standards in both familiar and new ways, considering how they can be applied from the top down and the bottom up." Guiomar Borrás A. (Glendale Community College)
	Moore 153A PC Lab	Session C: World Language Speech Festival Prep and other Language Events Need help preparing your students for the speech festival? Want to start your own festival? We will share some hints, rubrics and procedures to help you get your students ready to participate. We will also take some time to share other programs and ideas for more opportunities to get students to meet Quadrant D! Please bring your ideas. Cindy Wong (Moanalua High School)
10:00-10:30	B R E A K
10:30-11:30 Choose one of three sessions	Moore 153B Mac Lab	Session A: Elluminate and Apps for iPad, iPhone, iPod Touch This session will have two purposes. The first purpose is to introduce a free version of "Elluminate", an online conference software for up to 3 people. It has a whiteboard on which you can draw, type, even show PowerPoint slides. The use of this software is unlimited, such as virtual office hours, online presentations, even trouble shoot your friend's computer by looking at your friend's desktop remotely. Also some useful applications for language learning/teaching will be shared. Satoru Shinagawa (KCC)
	Moore 155B Faculty Dev. Lab	Session B: How to Prezi Do your students get tired of the same old power point formats? Do you encourage creativity in your class presentations? Could your students make a presentation with text and illustrations that would allow them to present orally without having to read? Then you need to attend this workshop and learn how to set up your prezi account and start delivering lessons or assigning projects with this incredible tool. "Prezi is a cloud-based presentation software that opens up a new world between whiteboards and slides. The zoomable canvas makes it fun to explore ideas and the connections between them. The result: visually captivating presentations that lead your audience down a path of discovery". Nancy Wysard (Sacred Hearts Academy) &amp; Nancy Kishi (Kalani High School)
	Moore 153A PC Lab	Session C: Preparing for the Spanish Language AP Exam Activities to encourage spontaneous language production by advanced students. A hands-on workshop to brainstorm and organize activities utilizing authentic reading and auditory sources. Stacy Fontenot (Punahou School)
